

REMARKS

A request for continued examination is filed herewith in order for the examiner to consider the accompanying information disclosure statement.

The formal matter identified in the ex parte Quayle action are believed corrected by the current amendment.

The application is therefore believed in a condition for allowance.